Firm Overview

Ascenda Enterprise Capital LLC is a multi-strategy investment firm registered in the State of Georgia, founded and operated by Izaiah Cottle. AEC operates across three core verticals: global markets trading, real estate, and private equity. The firm's real, current focus is the development and validation of a proprietary systematic trading research platform -- the Quantum Trading System -- currently in active development and paper-trading validation, not yet deployed with live investor capital.

Research & Development Status

Real, honest performance disclosure: the figures below reflect historical backtesting -- a computational simulation run against one year of historical NQ futures price data. They are NOT live trading results, NOT independently audited, and NOT verified by any third-party trade-tracking platform. No capital was actually placed at risk to produce these figures. Past backtested performance does not indicate or guarantee any future result, live or otherwise.
